6. GAL/FCI's Report

The Guardian ad Litem's (GAL's)/Family Court Investigator (FCI's) report must include:

- Facts about the issues listed in 5 above.
- The children's preferences for the parenting plan (if they stated any),
- Any facts about whether the children stated their preferences voluntarily, and
- Any facts about the children's level of understanding.

The report may include recommendations based on the investigation.

Deadline! Unless the court extends the deadline, the report must be filed and served on all parties at least 60 days before the trial, unless the court for good cause grants a written extension. The parties (or their lawyers, if any) have the right to inspect and copy the GAL/FCI's file of data gathered during the investigation, including the names and addresses of everyone the GAL/FCI consulted. Exception: information in the GAL/FCI's file that is confidential by law or sealed by a court shall not be shared with the parties or their lawyers.

7. Access to the Children and Information

The Guardian ad Litem (GAL)/Family Court Investigator (FCI) is allowed reasonable access to the children, and to all records and people with information that affects the children, including:

- Child care providers
- Physical and mental health care providers
- Schools and other educational institutions
- Law enforcement agencies, Child Protective Services, and the Department of Social and Health Services (or equivalent agencies if outside Washington)

Note: agencies may withhold or black out legally protected parts of requested information.

Additionally, to facilitate reasonable investigation of information pertaining to the best interests of the child(ren), the Guardian ad Litem or the Family Court Investigator shall have access to all records and information, including authorization to speak with interested persons, from the following sources: law enforcement agencies; Child Protective Services (or equivalent out of State agency); health care providers; mental health care providers; child care providers; the Department of Social and Health services (or the equivalent agency in another State); and educational institutions.

If it is determined that release of this information is likely to cause severe psychological or physical harm to the juvenile or his or her parents, the agency may withhold the information subject to other orders of the court. CPS and DSHS personnel are authorized to speak personally, with the Guardian ad Litem, Family Court Investigator, investigator, and/or lawyer; have access to all police reports and/or records including booking photos, regarding these parties. Written copies of these items shall be released to the Guardian ad Litem, Family Court investigator, investigator and/or lawyer upon request and without charge by the following law enforcement agencies: Kid's Haven, Benton County Sheriff, Benton County Jail, Franklin County Sheriff, Franklin County Jail, Pasco Police, Kennewick Police, Richland Police, West Richland Police, Washington State Patrol or any additional law enforcement agency, including Department of Corrections, and/or their counterparts in other jurisdictions.

However, these agencies may black out names and identification of such individuals who are protected by laws or agency policy as confidential sources.

Within the scope of appointment, the Guardian ad Litem or Family Court Investigator shall have access to all Superior Court, including Juvenile Court, District Court and Municipal Court files; including any sealed/confidential portions thereof. All information obtained from sealed or confidential files shall remain sealed or confidential, and the Guardian ad Litem Family Court Investigator shall inform the court if the Guardian ad Litem or Family Court Investigator report contains sealed or confidential information. The court clerk shall provide Individual Case Histories (ICH) and/or Judicial Access Browser System (JABS) information of all parties/household members (upon receipt of appropriate Release of Information form(s)) and/or certified copies of this order to the Guardian ad Litem or Family Court Investigator upon request. The Guardian ad Litem, Family Court Investigator, or the parties may move the court to make any reports or documents placed in the court file by the Guardian ad Litem or Family Court Investigator confidential upon good cause shown.

8. Release of Information

The signatures of parties or children age 12 or older below mean they give permission to the agencies and professionals listed in 7 above to share information about themselves and their children with the GAL/FCI.

The GAL/FCI may consult with and obtain information from medical, psychiatric, or other expert persons who have served the child in the past without obtaining the consent of the parent or the child's custodian; but the child's consent must be obtained if the child has reached the age of twelve, unless the court finds that the child lacks mental capacity to consent.

Note: Children age twelve or older will need to sign the Order Appointing Guardian ad Litem/Family Court Investigator consenting to the release of records or a separate release provided by the Guardian ad Litem/Family Court Investigator and/or by the healthcare provider, and/or a release of information.

9. Confidentiality

The Guardian ad Litem (GAL)/Family Court Investigator (FCI) will:

- Have access to all Superior Court and Juvenile Court files related to his/her duties, including sealed and confidential documents. Exception: The GAL/FCI will not have access to information sealed under RCW 13.50.050(7);
- Keep confidential any sealed and confidential information (unless his or her duties as GAL/FCI require otherwise);
- Tell the court if his/her report includes any sealed or confidential information; and
- File his or her report in two parts: one public and one sealed as required by GR 22.

Any party or the GAL/FCI may ask the court to make confidential any reports or documents placed in the file, if there is a good reason to do so.
